One of the ministries of the Coddle Creek Women of the Church (WOC) is to prepare and serve a meal to a member's family when they pass away. It is usually served at the church on the day of the funeral service. This is handled through our four women's circles which make up the WOC.

We realize that there are ladies who would like to help with this ministry but are not associated with a circle at this time. If you are one of these ladies who would like to help prepare food for the bereavement meals when they are needed but are not a part of one of our circles, please give us your name and phone number and put it into the collection plate. One of our ladies will contact you.
