We welcome you to worship this morning as we celebrate God’s faithfulness to our congregation these past 265 years! We especially wish to welcome those of you who have “come home” for this special day. In anticipation of an overflow crowd in the sanctuary, the fellowship hall has been set up with a live stream of the worship service. We invite the entire congregation to join us for a covered dish dinner in the grove immediately after worship. Please see one of our ushers if you need assistance getting to the grove.

The Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper will be observed next Sunday.

This year’s FALL FESTIVAL is scheduled for October 27, 2018. Mark your calendars and plan to join us for this fun filled family event.

Homecoming 2018
265 Years of Ministry
1753-2018

As we celebrate 265 years of ministry at Coddle Creek Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, we remember first and foremost that we are celebrating God's faithfulness to us! We join our voices with the Psalmist as we declare "This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes!" (Psalm 118:23) We also acknowledge that we are the benefactors and heirs of the generations of saints who have gone before us, laying a solid foundation of worship, ministry, and service.

Since our last Homecoming in 2013, Coddle Creek has experienced both change and constancy. We said farewell to one pastor, Rev. Jamie Hunt, who retired in 2014 after serving faithfully for 33 years; and we welcomed a new pastor in 2016, Rev. Andrew Shoger. As a congregation, we have seen the Lord call a number of our members home to Glory, while also bringing new members into our fellowship. We have retired the debt on the Education Building, purchased a home at Bonclarken for retreat and spiritual refreshment, and made several improvements to our facilities and grounds. We also remain steadfast in our commitment to the faith once for all delivered to the saints, assembling ourselves weekly for the worship of God and the faithful exposition and study of Scripture. We also continue to look outward, seeking to be a light on a hill to our ever-growing community, sharing the hope of the Gospel both through personal evangelism and group efforts, like our Good News Club ministry recently begun at Coddle Creek Elementary School.

As we reflect back on what God has done in and through us, we also are keeping an eye on tomorrow. Just as God has used us to accomplish His purposes in the past, so we seek to be faithful and willing servants for Him in the future!

We wish to extend a word of thanks and appreciation to everyone who has helped with preparations for today and especially to our Homecoming planning committee: Jimmy & Judy Moore, Francis Morrow, Nancy Myers, Pat Oestreich, and Barbara Whittington.

Soli Deo Gloria

To God Alone be the Glory!
