Icehower (cont.)

Corporal W.S.	June 2, 1864 Corporal W.S. Icehower of Co. A 11 NC Regiment. Killed at Cold Harbor, VA. Aged 20 years and 10 mos. Far in a distant land fell, his pain no human tongue can tell/No pillow on which to rest his head, the cold earth was his dying bed/I never shall forget that solemn day when his lovely form there did lay/No mother nor sister there to weep, nor even for him a winding sheet/The flash of cannon was the only light that shown on him that dreadful night/The enemy was near in battle array and kept us from carrying his body away/The clouds were low and the darkness of night kept concealed from the enemies sight/Then slowly I did to his body creep and found him soundly in death asleep/I stood near to his manly head to speak but lo! He was dead./ Then his fond hand I did grasp and bid him farewell while time shall last/ Filled with grief, I bid him farewell for Mollie and Maggie I did to them tell/ Then I said farewell, farewell again. Farewell in remembrance Of little Martha Jane./So rest Willie, rest is all I can say, Until that great eternal day/I'll tell your sister how manly you Fell, and again bid you a final farewell/In joy we all hope to meet You when the day of life is fled, then heaven again to meet You, where no farewell tear is shed.
